2020 Annual Catholic Appeal “You are the Light of the World”
This weekend, our parish is conducting the Annual Catholic Appeal Commitment Weekend. Please remember that the Annual Catholic Appeal is much different than a one-time special collection. It is a pledge campaign where you can make a gift payable in installments. The Annual Catholic Appeal theme, “You are the Light of the World” was selected to remind us that our actions, our prayers and our financial investments in vital ministries of the church are all given to honor and serve God.

Each pledge makes a difference! Your generous support enables our Archdiocese to deliver needed ministries and services that impact all parishes and people of all ages throughout central and western Oklahoma.

Thank you for your prayerful consideration and generous response. Learn more or make your gift online: www.archokc.org/appeal

GOSPEL MEDITATION
February 23, 2020 ~ 7th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Gospels continue to challenge us to the core. This is especially true in the way our social relationships have developed. Feeling safe and secure in the world are not things that come easily these days. Actually, we may find ourselves feeling more reservation, caution, reluctance, and fear than ever before. In a moment’s notice, life can drastically change. When someone has been intentionally and violently hurt, especially someone we love, we can all too easily find ourselves very attracted to the Old Testament philosophy of “an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.”

Intellectually, we know this is not what Jesus wants us to do. But on some level it just seems to make practical or even political sense. After all, why should we allow someone to get away with a heinously violent act? Yet, Jesus cannot be any clearer than he is with this! Offer no resistance to one who is evil. Turn the other cheek as well. When pressed into service, appear to make more sense. Holiness wells up from our souls and is beyond reason. It cannot be explained. It is something we just simply know comes as a result of deep prayer. The truly contemplative eye knows inwardly that what Jesus asks is true and then willingly does it. It may not be easy.

We want to be holy. But we are more comfortable with a definition of holiness that has something to say about to how we react to and negotiate life. We like to keep a sharp and strong line between the secular and the sacred. In fact, we would prefer that the doors between them be kept closed. God wants us to be holy as He is holy. If God sees this one way and we see it another, then where does this leave us on our journey to God?

Our minds like the practical, worldly, and secular answers to things. They are more black and white and at first glance appear to make more sense. Holiness wells up from our souls and is beyond reason. It cannot be explained. It is something we just simply know comes as a result of deep prayer. The truly contemplative eye knows inwardly that what Jesus asks is true and then willingly does it. It may not be easy.

Overcoming the Darkness
We are all aware of the horrific sexual abuse crisis that has haunted our church over the years and especially over the last few weeks. We all grieve the wicked ways our priests have abused children, seminarians and other vulnerable people and we all grieve sexual abuse in families. We know many of us feel, understandably, angry, sad, and demoralized over this scandal, but instead of letting it divide us, our parish has decided to open a conversation to help overcome the darkness that surrounds our Church today.

Recently we made "Letter to a Suffering Church" by Bishop Robert Barron available and hope by now you have had a chance to read it. Bishop Barron has provided clear insight on the crisis and advice on why we should stay in the Church and fight on behalf of those who have suffered so grievously at the hands of their perpetrators.

Most of us are wondering, what should we do both as a Church and as an institution to bring about reform and renewal? Can we do anything as individuals to help heal our Church? The first thing we can do is talk as we move towards salving the wounds that divide us. And so we invite you to join a panel discussion on Thurs. March 5, at 7:00 pm as we navigate a brighter future together. Watch for more information.

At the end of our meeting we will be encouraging you to help us continue the healing process by signing up for small-faith discussion groups. We will be guided by Bishop Barron and his video series, and led by facilitators who are skilled listeners. More information on how to sign up for small-faith discussion groups will be available after the panel discussion evening.

Register today for the March Day of Reflection at St. Gregory’s Abbey in Shawnee.
“How Can I Love Myself and Why is that Important” will be presented by Fr. Boniface Copelin, OSB on Sat., March 14. We are told in the Gospel that we are to love our neighbor as ourselves (Matt. 22:39). But the truth is that many people don’t love themselves nor do they know what that looks like and so it begs the question: “If I don’t love myself, how well can I love my neighbor?” This day’s reflection will focus on what it means to love one’s self in a Christian context. Register by calling 405-878-5656 or emailing retreats@monksok.org. Cost is $30 (early bird registration) or $35 at the door. Lunch is included. Please pre-register due to space limitations. The day begins at 8:30 am with Mass in the Abbey Church and ends around 3:00 pm after Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

Register today for the March Day of Reflection at St. Gregory’s Abbey in Shawnee.
“How Can I Love Myself and Why is that Important” will be presented by Fr. Boniface Copelin, OSB on Sat., March 14. We are told in the Gospel that we are to love our neighbor as ourselves (Matt. 22:39). But the truth is that many people don’t love themselves nor do they know what that looks like and so it begs the question: “If I don’t love myself, how well can I love my neighbor?” This day’s reflection will focus on what it means to love one’s self in a Christian context. Register by calling 405-878-5656 or emailing retreats@monksok.org. Cost is $30 (early bird registration) or $35 at the door. Lunch is included. Please pre-register due to space limitations. The day begins at 8:30 am with Mass in the Abbey Church and ends around 3:00 pm after Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.
